17-061431

On Thursday April 06, 2017, the victim was with two B/M at Double D's and several other locations. Late Thursday night into early Friday morning the B/M ditched the victim, and when he returned to his vehicle the back window was smashed and his AR-15 rifle stolen. I am trying to identify the B/M below.

If you can make an identification please contact Detective Schilling 561-688-4943

CRIMINAL VANDALISM

Det Lou Schilling would like to ID this female (BF or HF) who is the girlfriend of Nathaniel Richardson (4/3/87). The image comes from his Facebook page: (https://www.facebook.com/TRELLS7).

The tattoo on her shoulder is in script writing and ends in "zah." She may own / drive a black Nissan Altima.

She is a suspect in a Criminal Vandalism where bricks were thrown through 3 windows in one house.

If you can ID this female, please contact Det. Schilling.

On March 6, 2017 the victim, Emiliano Torres, lost his wallet while at a convenience store in the City of Belle Glade. A short time later an unknown black female (pictured in the video) attempted to use the victim's credit card on two separate occasions in the City of Pahokee. According to employees at the convenience stores the female is from the Pahokee area. During the attempted use of the victim's credit cards the female was a passenger in a white four (4) door Cadillac.

INFORMATION / OFFICER SAFETY

Joseph Jakubowski
DOB: 07/21/1984

It is believed that the subject has altered his appearance similar to picture on the right.

On April 4, 2017, Jakubowski allegedly stole a large quantity of handguns and rifles from a gun shop in Janesville, WI. and authored a hand-written manifesto detailing hatred for "the system".

Jakubowski has no known ties to Florida.

However, since President Donald Trump will be in Palm Beach County, this information is being disseminated for situational awareness.

SUBJECT HAS AN ACTIVE ARREST WARRANT
AND SHOULD BE CONSIDERED ARMED AND DANGEROUS.
